This Month's Guest Artist:

Jeanine Murch

Illustration and Lettering

I'm Jeanine Murch, a freelance illustrator who loves creating whimsical & colorful art and hand lettering for books, greeting cards, magazines, and more. I began my career in the big publishing houses in NYC, designing and art directing children's books. After a decade, I made the leap from corporate world to running my own freelance business, which also allowed me to return to my hometown of Pittsburgh. That's where I can now be found, usually snuggling one of my 2 small kiddos or sweet rescue pup, when I'm not drawing in my home studio. I love incorporating hand-lettered type into my imagery, and draw inspiration from travel, nature, music and my Pittsburgh roots. BFA in illustration from University of the Arts, Philadelphia Member Pittsburgh Society of Illustrators (PSI) and Society of Children's Book Writers and Illustrators (SCBWI)

Plein Air Artists - we need you! Our WHAL Plein Air Coordinator, Gena Gorder, has some fantastic opportunities planned for painting and drawing in the landscape this summer, but she could use some help organizing it.

WHAL Member News & Art Openings

Doris Dumrauf will be the April Artist in the Back Hallway at the Cranberry Municipal Building for the Cranberry Artists Network

Lynda Kirby joined 19 other creatives to participate in Fun A Day Pittsburgh. Artists committed to doing something creative in January. The work was exhibited in February in Millvale at the former Panza Gallery.

Leah Shuck has an event coming up for PAEA on Turkish Ebru which is the traditional art of paper marbling. It is not just for art teachers, as it is a hands-on art-making experience. It is March 12th from 1-3pm. It will take place in my art room at West Allegheny High School. It is $10.

James and Debra Tobin are participating in Achieva's Pittsburgh Promenade signature fundraising event on March 25th. 6:00 - 9:30 PM at The Westin, 1000 Penn Avenue Pittsburgh.

On this day, friends and family will enjoy an evening celebrating the 25th Anniversary of the Achieva Family Trust. The event includes a live and silent auction, basket raffle and games of chance with proceeds supporting and empower people with disabilities and their families through advocacy, family support, early intervention, and employment and more! With the support of our many partners and the community, people with disabilities are living their best lives.

They support Vault Art Studios, a place where artists with any disability can practice any art discipline.

Fees/Admission

Dinner tickets are $175 per person. Sponsorships are available. For more information visit <http://www.achieva.info/promenade2023>

Josette Baker is exhibiting her artwork in "Magical Beings" at the Ketchup City Creative Gallery, Sharpsburg, February 24-26. The juried exhibit features real or imagined figures with a magical, earthly or ancestral feeling. Her submissions include: "Temujin, the Storyteller" charcoal, "Land Where the Bong Tree Grows", acrylic and "Spirit Totem - Red Tail Fox in Snow", watercolor.

"Spirit Totem: Red Tail Fox in Snow, watercolor

"Temujin, the Storyteller", charcoal

"Land Where the Bong Tree Grows" inspired by Edward Lear's story of "The Owl and the Pussycat" ca. 1812, acrylic

Patricia Young received "Best of Show" at SAMA winter paint out in Ligonier. Pastel that won "Best of Show." 12x18. No snow this year, very warm Thursday, cold Friday and pleasant Saturday. Nice to get out and paint!

WHAL Member News & Art Openings

Be on the look out for the next edition of Allegheny West Magazine. The issue, scheduled to publish in March, will contain a story about the West Hill Art League and our upcoming 55th anniversary events.

Gina Judy: has been accepted into two national shows...Spokane National (on location) and Rhode Island's Online National SPRING BREAK. She is also in the PAWCS online-member show currently, and CAN's SIMPLY SPRING. Gina is also going to be in Kentucky's Regional AQUAVENTURE and the Louisiana Watercolor Society 53rd International Watercolor Exhibition.

James Tobin was among the artists who participated in the Cranberry Artists Network Abraham Lincoln exhibit in the glass display case in the Cranberry Township Municipal Building in February.

Leah Shuck debuted her Wunderkammer at the Practice What We Teach art educator show at Penn State New Kensington. It is a German art form that means "cabinet of curiosities". She adapted it a bit though making it less assemblage and more mixed media accordion book. It is made from an upcycled iPhone box and various ephemera that got at the PAEA conference and pieces from my stash. It is about memory.

Aimee Bungard put some of her found heart photography up on Redbubble! They make really nice cards or shirts!

THE CHAMBER

This year's juror will be Victor Beltran

Victor is an accomplished artist and art teacher who has been sketching and painting locales from around the world for over 40 years. His collections of Western Pennsylvania include Fallingwater, the Phipps Conservatory, Cooks Forest, and Carnegie Museum. Victor Beltran has won numerous awards and has exhibited in the US including at the Carnegie Museum of Art in Pittsburgh, Mexico, Peru, Ecuador in the Peruvian Embassy Gallery, and Brazil. Victor Beltran has over 50 years of experience in architecture, illustration and watercolor. As an accomplished watercolorist and teacher, he has taught at Phipps Conservatory, conducted workshops for artists' guilds, and previously served as Vice President of the Pittsburgh Watercolor society.

After many years of sketching throughout the world, Victor has developed extraordinary fine-tuned skills where he can quickly sketch spontaneously to produce stunning images regardless of place or setting.

Beltran produces artistic works that build on his talents and training which is expressed in his spontaneous art forms. In the spring of 2009, Victor produced an event, Art Just in Time, where he produced 16 acrylic paintings in a day. Recently, during a live performance by the Bach Choir of Pittsburgh, Victor created 4 paintings while perched on high a scaffold during Mussorgsky's Pictures at an Exhibition. During his travels to Europe, Canada, Ecuador, Mexico and Eastern United States, Victor Beltran has completed over 60 sketch books which depict thousands of locals including the Swiss Alps, Venice, Paris, Amsterdam, Munich, Rome, Sienna, Florence, Seville, Cordoba, Granada and San Miguel de Allende, Taxco, Morelia and Quito.

Victor Beltran is a member of the Pittsburgh Watercolor Society and Associated Artists of Pittsburgh. Beltran, a native of Lima, Peru, came to Pittsburgh in 1986 and currently resides in the Fox Chapel Area.

Laurel Arts

Arts for everyone

The Philip Dressler Center for the Arts
presents:

Off The Wall: A 3-D Juried Exhibit

April 4—May 4, 2023

Opening Reception:

Friday, April 7th

6:00 p.m.—8:00 p.m.

We want you to get Off the Wall
... and onto the floor at The Philip
Dressler Center for the Arts!

We are looking for artists who work in the 3-dimensional space to create unique, unusual, off the wall pieces to display throughout our galleries. Instead of walking up to the art, we want you to be able to walk through the art as it's displayed on the floors, on pedestals, tables OR even hanging from the ceiling (please call ahead for availability and weight restrictions).

What do we mean by 3-dimensional art? This is art that is presented in the dimensions of height, width and depth that occupies physical space and can be perceived from all sides and angles.

We are looking for artists who make three-dimensional pieces in any medium (wood, stone, metal, plastic, glass, found objects, etc.), sculptural, welding, blacksmithing, carvings, castings, installations, reliefs, mixed media, 3-D printing, collages, mosaics, jewelry, pottery and/or fibers. Your piece can be whimsical, abstract, or realistic. This is your chance to go completely off the wall with your designs and thoughts, so don't wall yourself in!

* DROP OFF: The Philip Dressler Center for the Arts, 214 Harrison Avenue. Somerset. PA 15501
Wed., March 29th, (11-6)
Thur., March 30th (11-6)
Sat., April 1st (10-2)

* PICK UP: Sat., May 6 (10-2) Unless other arrangements have been made PRIOR to the close of the exhibit. Artwork not picked up within thirty (30) days from the close of the exhibit become the property of Laurel

This is a juried exhibit. You will be notified by phone if your work is not accepted, and it must be picked up no later than April 6. Laurel Arts reserves the right to reject work that does not meet the exhibit requirements

Cash Awards

We will be presenting cash awards for Best of Show, First, Second and Third Place, plus additional honors.

For questions, please call or email
Phone: 814-443-2433 • Email: ali-son@laurelarts.org

Kim Freithaler

Painting Animals in Watermedia, (primarily acrylic)

Saturday, April 1, 2023, 9:30 A.M. – 4:00 P.M.

Pittsburgh Watercolor Society is delighted to present a Saturday animal painting workshop in water media with Kim Freithaler. Originally from New York City, where she completed an internship at the Metropolitan Museum of Art, studied at the Art Students League of Manhattan, and taught in Manhattan public schools, Kim is currently the Executive Director at North Hills Art Center as well as a painting instructor. Kim has won numerous awards, and her work is exhibited in several galleries and businesses. Her murals have been installed in public buildings both locally and in Georgia. She paints oil portraits by commission. A wider selection of Kim's work can be viewed at: <http://kimfreithaler.com> and <http://facebook.com/kimfreithalerportraits>

As animals cannot "sit" for a portrait in the way humans can, choosing the right reference material is essential in painting animal portraits.

WORKSHOP DESCRIPTION: Participants should bring a variety of references for their animal portraits, making sure there is enough detail in the references chosen, as the workshop will first cover choosing the right reference material. It is helpful to enlarge an image to about 8" x 10". Kim will instruct participants on how to get a likeness and how to obtain accurate fur colors and textures. The workshop will begin with a demonstration and individual instruction will follow. Participants may bring any water media they choose, but instruction will be done with acrylic paints. The supplies list provided on the PWS website link is only a suggestion, and participants should bring what they are comfortable using. Virtually any color mixture will make some type of brown!

Location:

Wilkins School Community Center
7604 Charleston Ave.
Wilkinsburg, PA 15218

(Drop supplies off at the venue, then park on the street.
Few restaurants nearby; bringing lunch is suggested.)

COST FOR ONE-DAY in-person WORKSHOP:
PWS Members: $60 Non-Members: $75

REGISTRATION begins January 9, 2023
REGISTRATION AND PAYMENT IN FULL DUE:

Online: March 18, 2023, 11:59 P.M.

Hameau Farm Studio Artist Retreat

The 26th Annual Hameau Artist Retreat May 9-13 & September 26-30, 2023.

Day options available for all Hameau Artist Retreats.

Hameau Farm Studio Artist Retreat is a gathering place for artists to share, create, learn, and have fun. The unique studio, variety of landscape views, seasonal farm to table food, and camaraderie compel the artists to return. From the beginner to the professional artist, Hameau captures and inspires the creative spirit in a positive and supportive atmosphere.

Susan Nicholas Gephart believes in nurturing the "Artistic Spirit" of the individual artist. Hameau Farm Studio in The Big Valley of Central Pennsylvania has been the perfect place for her to organize Artist Retreats for the last 20 years.

We welcome artists of all media and levels, serve beautiful meals catered to individual needs, and we will work to fit your schedule, interests, and budget.

The panoramic views and comforts of the Hameau Farm Studio along with its well-lit space for demos, critiques, and painting make it an ideal getaway for artists. The beautiful fields, valleys, Amish farms, and lush Kish Creek await the colors of your palette. Beyond Hameau lie Brookmere Vineyards, Plum Bottom Farm lane, and the view of Juniata Valley at Jack's Mountain.

Life doesn't get much better for artists, when all they have to think about is "Which beautiful scene should I paint next?"

'Balanced Response'

Presented by Associated Artists of Pittsburgh at Associated Artists of Pittsburgh Exhibition Space, Pittsburgh PA

Now through March 17, 2023

Robert Morris University- Media Arts Gallery, 6001 University Blvd, Wheatley Center, Moon Township, PA 15108

Balanced Response features work by 25 artists, and the work on view shares their reaction, reply, or resolution to current experiences of the world. In a time of extremes, the work in the exhibition speaks to moments of stillness and acceptance, heightened emotional engagement, and ways to move
