Steph Moraca

Fine Artist

Steph Moraca's passion for translating the beauty of natural landscapes onto canvas began at a young age. She became enamored with the great outdoors through her childhood travels, where she visited many national parks and golf courses with her family.

Ms. Moraca attended professional studio drawing classes at age 10 and began to paint by age 12. Ms. Moraca received a Bachelor of Arts in Studio Arts from the University of Pittsburgh in 2012. Today, she is still painting what originally sparked her passion: golf and nature landscapes. She is a nationally recognized award winning artist.

Ms. Moraca creates original oil paintings for private art collectors throughout the United States. You can find her work online, at trade shows, and in golf shops. Her landscape paintings have been recognized in national fine art exhibitions and the talk of podcasts and magazines. She is involved with organizations including the Golf Heritage Society, Oil Painters of America, the Pittsburgh Society of Artists, and more.

"I have developed a unique painting style somewhere between realism and photo-realism," she explains, "I dedicate many hours to work on fine detail in these paintings." Her clients boast that her paintings are realistic, yet artistic to the point where a piece can be recognized as a painting when taking a look at an original work up close.

Ms. Moraca completes original paintings in her studio and participates in live painting demonstrations at corporate events and weddings throughout the United States. She accepts custom commission requests for paintings including pet portraits, family portraits, hole-in-one paintings, vacation landscape paintings, and imaginary landscapes. In addition to selling her own artwork, she teaches free weekly painting lessons on her YouTube Channel "The Painting Stoof" to help others learn how to paint.

This is your year to become a member of the the PITTSBURGH Society of Artists, one of the largest artist guilds in western Pennsylvania with more than 300 artist members in all media. We offer artists the chance to join with peers in a lifelong pursuit of artistic expression.

Since 1965, the PITTSBURGH Society of Artists remains dedicated to providing our members with exhibition opportunities and encouraging creative thinking through meetings, workshops, critiques, field trips to museums, artist studios and much more. Become a PITTSBURGH Society of Artists member and take advantage of our valuable resources for personal and artistic growth such as the fellowship of your peers and interesting programs.

As a member of the PITTSBURGH Society of Artists, all this can be yours. There is no fee for screening. If accepted, annual dues are $40.00.

Applicants for PITTSBURGH Society of Artists membership are asked to submit (3) three original works completed within the last two years and not under direct instruction. Each applicant is assigned a number which is attached to each piece for the screening. Work is considered by members of the board of directors. Applicants are accepted by a two-thirds vote of board members present. Work must be finished and gallery-ready. Appropriate hangers and stands must be provided for three-dimensional work.

Following are rough guidelines board members follow in evaluating submissions.

CONSISTENCY: The most decisive factor in judging a candidate for membership is the artist's ability to speak with a recognizable voice through their work. Consistency in style and medium allows an artist to showcase their talents in the particular area in which they are most accomplished.

VISUAL INTEREST: Visual interest is evaluated by looking at the strength of the work based on the elements and principles of art and design.

CONTENT: The work is examined with an eye towards originality, expression and meaning.

CRAFTSMANSHIP: Craftsmanship is rated according to the skill and degree of quality in the work and presentation.

All due care will be taken handling art during screening hours. PSA is not responsible for loss or damage of art works.
